

Decision Superiority Enterprise Services (DSES) - N65236-11-D-3840

Third Wave Strategies is a critical team member in the DSES contract providing subject matter expertise and senior level decision skills to the $19.76M Indefinite Delivery/Indefinite Quantity (IDIQ) contract awarded by the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center (SPAWARSYSCEN) Atlantic

Contract Sponsorship

- SPAWAR-wide enterprise contract vehicle
- Exists under the Decision Superiority competency organization
- Contract is open to all federal agencies
- Approved for both CONUS and OCONUS projects

Labor Categories and Pricing

- 37 LCATs covering eight Service Areas
- Engineering, Information Technology, Integrated Logistics, Program Management, Technicians, Training, Operations Specialists, Subject Matter Expert, other
- Cover both regular and Service Contract Act (SCA) positions
- Solid, well-justified rates based on 280+ interview of local and out of area candidates across all LCATs

Contract Service Areas

- Program Management: Comprehensive program management services, including project management and administration, earned value management (EVM), cost estimating, and contract administration.
- Systems Engineering: Including requirements definition, operations research and analysis, technology investigation and assessment, research & development (R&D), modeling and simulation (M&S), system design and documentation, configuration management, and human system interface (HSI).
- Software Engineering: Full range of software engineering services, including software development, system architecture, information assurance, software design and customization, legacy software engineering and system migration, and service oriented architecture (SOA) design and engineering.
- Technical Support Services: Diverse set of technical support service areas, including site surveys and studies, warranty management and tracking, help desk and onsite troubleshooting, systems/equipment operation, equipment/system upgrades and disposal, and many others.
- Systems Implementation Services: Including technical design and installation, facilities requirements and analysis, system delivery and deployment, system integration, system test, production services to modify/enhance and/or upgrading legacy systems, fielding, and technical documentation.
- Testing and Evaluation: Comprehensive testing and evaluation services, including testing documentation, test planning, first article testing, and acceptance testing.
- Life Cycle Logistics Support: Including full range of integrated logistics support (ILS) services, technical documentation, applied/system/and live training, hardware/software and reliability centered maintenance (RCM), packing/handling/storage/and transportation (PHS&T), logistics system design, maintainability and availability studies and assessment, and safety engineering.
- Security Engineering: Diverse set of security engineering support, including information systems evaluation, certification and accreditation (C&A), federal information security management act (FISMA) support, and information security and assurance.